[Faint, illegible handwriting in the left margin]

"Henry Moore,
 Emigrants selected by Mr. [illegible]"

Dear Sir

I have now the pleasure of enclosing a list of the emigrants of my selection by the "Henry Moore" and I trust not they will in all respects meet your approval - they are of the same type generally as those of my former selections. I do not intend in this measure to reflect on you any lengthened remarks on the settlement system - you know that I do not entertain any high opinion of its value but you have kindly explained to me that the Colonists of South Australia do think highly of it & wish its continuance - they are of course bound their money in any commodity they desire I would only ask you however to observe the difference between the selected emigrants in this ship & the emittance cases - Mark the trades & callings as well as the quality of the people. Observe also the number of young children with the emittance people as contrasted with the families of the selected emigrants

I am glad to see some remarks in the papers to the effect that people are not now getting I. C. Mr. Victoria as they had previously been doing

I hope my people by the Army More will be found a valuable selection

Yours
truly

Yours truly

James B. McCook
