BUTLER, Captain Gerald Villiers. There is some doubt as to the Christian names. When he was appointed Government Resident at Robe they were given as George Villiers (Gazette, Sep. 3, 1846. p. 297). But the lists of justices of the peace in the Gazettes for 1846 and 1850 speak of him as Gerald Villiers. There is little doubt that Butler's first Christian name was Gerald, but his second one is occasionally spelt "Villers" - correct spelling according to his great-grand-nephew Mr. W.V.
